

CURB REPORTER

It is raining. It is raining! At noon nearly half an inch had fallen this morning. At 11:45 to be more exact forty-one hundredths of an inch had fallen according to Observer Wayne Creasman who also reported that the high temperature for Sunday was 83 and the low 65. Tryon's low summer temperature is lower than the best golfers' score who shoots consistently in the 60's The Congregational church picnic supper at the home of the Nelson Jackson's on Wednesday will be at 7 o'clock, but those desiring to play croquet, horse shoe pitching, ping pong, etc., may go at 6 o'clock. Members of the church and their friends, and their "friends friends" are invited. Each person will take his own sandwiches. The committee will furnish salad, lemonade, paper cups, plates, etc. . . . Fred L. Seeley, of the Biltmore Industries, has dedicated two buildings for Misses Vance and Yale of Tryon, founders of the Biltmore arts and crafts industries, and of the Tryon Toymakers. The wood-carving building will be known as the Eleanor Vance building and the weaving shop as the Charlotte Yale building The Bulletin has been receiving produce from farmer subscribers. It includes potatoes, beans, squash, canned fruit, cherries, corn meal, honey, fat pine, lettuce, sweet potatoes, etc. Let's trade and enjoy better living. When we exchange goods, exchange thoughts and fellowship—we grow!

Private John Harold Geyer of Willow Grove, Pa., and Bugler Oliver Gould of Crest Park, Ill., who are at Camp Croft, have been spending their weekends in Tryon and report having a good time here.
