Columbus Children Collecting Aluminum for Defense

Reading in the Tryon Daily Bulletin about the movement of the Tryon Kiwanis club to join groups all over the nation in collecting old aluminum which is now needed for the manufacture of airplanes, 14-year-old Cleo Jordan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Jordan of Columbus and a group of young friends of the Kiddies Reading Club, have already started collecting aluminum and piling it up in the Jordan yard to have it ready when the Kiwanis, Rotary, Civic committee calls for it. The present plan is for a committee of the Kiwanis, one of the Rotary and three committeemen not members of either club to get together and form one central committee to handle the patriotic project. C. J. Lynch is chairman of the Kiwanis committee.

All Day Singing Sunday At Columbus School

Mayor John R. Burgess reports that there will be all day singing and dinner on the ground at the Stearns school campus on Sunday. Quartets and choirs from adjoining counties will participate.
