

GENERAL ELECTRIC

REFRIGERATORS AND RANGES
JOHN S. BLACKWELL

BALLENGER
BUILDING
Tryon, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cooper and daughter, Miss Grace Cooper, of Marshalltown, Iowa, and a grandson, John Griffin Cooper, of Washington, D. C., have left after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Acker.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Woodhull of Summit, N. J., have leased the Rivers cottage near Lindcourt Drive through C. J. Lynch.

Mr. and Mrs. Mellen C. Martin of Chicago have arrived in Tryon for an inspection of their property in the Hunting Country, and are guests for a few days at Melrose Lodge. The Martins have been making extensive improvements, building a guest house, garage and making plans for the big house.

Dressmaking and Doncaster Dresses. Apply to Mrs. Florence Averill, phone 324-J, Tryon.—Adv. w's.

For Your FOURTH OF JULY NEEDS

Paper Cups, Plates, Napkins, Forks and Spoons—all at 10c each

Good Assortment of CHEESE SPREADS and MEAT SPREADS; Duke's and Kraft MAYONNAISE and SALAD DRESSINGS; PICKLES; OLIVES; GINGER ALE and JUICES; COOKIES and CRACKERS.

Give us your order early Thursday morning for

CHICKENS

(We will be closed all day Friday. Wishing all a safe and happy Fourth of July).

JACKSON'S

Ralph S. Jackson, Mgr.
TRYON, N. C.