Quiet At Lake Lanier

The Property Owners Association of Lake Lanier met on Thursday, July 3rd, with Sheriff Homer Beardon of Greenville County. The sheriff stated that the facilities of his office are being used to supervise and patrol the lake region. C. E. Scoggins, former deputy sheriff of Polk County, is on active duty there. Ernest Kerhulas who recently took over Lake Lanier Inn property has opened the docks for swimming and boating and has a life guard in charge. Harkness Smith says, "With the cooperation of the owners of the lake property, Lake Lanier will take its rightful place as one of the most beautiful residential sections of South Carolina, and will afford recreational facilities unsurpassed in this part of the country."
