

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY
SETH M. VINING, EDITOR $1.50 Year in the Carolinas

Vol. 14. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, JULY 9, 1941

POLK COUNTY BOY WINS 4-H SCHOLARSHIP

One of the delegates from Polk County to the 4-H Short Course at State College this year will be Joe Stockton, of Landrum, S. C., Route One. He was named the outstanding 4-H Club boy in the County, and the honor carries with it a scholarship to the Short Course, awarded by the Chilean Nitrate Educational Bureau, of which A. G. Floyd of Raleigh is State director. The scholarship pays all expenses and is worth $5.50.

The 1941 State 4-H Short Course at State College will open with registration on Monday, July 28th, and will continue through a morning assembly period on Saturday, August 2nd. L. R. Harrill, State 4-H Club Leader, and Miss Frances MacGregor, assistant State Club Leader, have announced a complete program for the event.

Governor J. M. Broughton will speak on the Achievement Day program Friday morning, Aug. 1, and Dr. Frank Porter Graham, president of the Greater University of North Carolina, will address the young people on Wednesday morning. A Citizenship Ceremony will feature the Thursday morning session, during which J. O. Howard of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, Washington, D. C., will lead a panel discussion of "The Responsibility of Rural Youth as Citizens."

Dean I. O. Schaub, director of the extension service, and Miss Ruth Current, state home agent,

Continued on Back Page

Presbyterian Ladies To Meet On Thursday

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Tryon Presbyterian church will meet on Thursday afternoon at 3:45 with Mrs. D. M. McGeachy.

CCC Men Wanted Now Says Miss Tyler

Another call for CCC men between the ages of 17 and 24½ years old has been made to Polk County says Miss Ina T. Tyler, superintendent of public welfare. Any man between the above ages who has never been in camp before, and all former members who have been out of camp for three months and have an honorable discharge, will be accepted. Applicants should notify Miss Tyler at Columbus before July 15th.

BASEBALL TODAY

Adams-Millis and Drayton Mills will play a regular baseball game this afternoon at the Adams-Millis ball park at 4:30. These two teams are expected to render a good account of themselves to the interest of the fans.

SOFTBALL TODAY, TOO

A double-header softball program is scheduled at Harmon Field this afternoon. The first game will be played at 4:30 between the Adams-Millis No. 2 team and the Kilowatts. The second game is also scheduled at Harmon Field at 6 o'clock between Bushwhackers and Bird Hunters.