Baby Killed In Auto Collision Near Bird Mountain Sunday

An auto accident which injured five persons and caused the death of a 3½-month-old baby occurred Sunday afternoon about 4 o'clock near the Bird Mountain filling station south of Tryon when two automobiles collided.

One car was driven by Lieutenant W. K. Pflaum of Camp Croft and the other by Horace Sitton of the Spartanburg fire department. The Pflaum car went down the embankment 30 or 40 feet turning over several times. William Michael small baby of Lieut. and Mrs. Pflaum died Sunday night at 11:45 at St. Luke's hospital. The condition of the others injured was considered satisfactory this morning, although the Pflaum's 2½-year-old daughter, Mary Judith, was in a serious condition. Mrs. Pflaum suffered wounds about the face and arms. Lieutenant Pflaum received injuries to the knees and cuts and bruises.

There were two passengers in the other car. Sitton received minor bruises and cuts. Miss Evelyn Farmer, 18, of Spartanburg, suffered a hip fracture and other injuries about the body and face.

The wet pavement is thought to have caused one or both of the cars to skid.
