

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY
SETH M. VINING, EDITOR $1.50 Year in the Carolinas

Vol. 14. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., WED., JULY 16, 1941

HERE FROM WYOMING

Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Colbron of Jackson's Hole, Wyoming, who are guests at Mill Farm, plan to make their home in Polk County. They are buying a tract of land from Joe Tallent, near the Irving Day property below Columbus. There are five members of the Colbron family. Miss Rosemary Wilson, now at Three Bar Ranch, Moose, Wyoming; William Wilson at Moran, Wyoming and Miss Barbara Colbron at New Canaan, Conn. Miss Colbron is the assistant dean at Bryn Mawr.

MARRIED

Of the 47 marriage certificates issued at the Spartanburg county probate court last week the following were for people in this section:

Barney Lee Storey, 27, Landrum route 1, and Frances Julia Morris, 18, of Campobello route 1.

William Y. Wilkins, Jr., Tryon, N. C., and Polly Thompson, 25, of Goldsboro, N. C.

Furman Moss Gowan, 21, of Bamberg, and Lcttie Louise Lewis, 18, of Landrum, route 2.

John Lloyd Moseley, 30, of Spartanburg, and Margaret Shulks, 18, of Mill Spring, N. C.

Luther Levi Peace, 46, and Sarah Ernestine Bishop, 19, both of Saluda, N. C.

GAMES PARTY

The Mollie Morris Circle of the Tryon Methodist church will give a games party at Lake Lanier Tea House on Tuesday, July 22, at 8 p. m.

1,200 Attend Picnic Of Federation

Columbus, July 15.—An all-day rain did not daunt the crowd of more than 1,200 persons who attended the annual Farmers' federation Polk County picnic at the courthouse here Tuesday. The meeting was one of the largest ever held here.

James G. K. McClure, president of the federation, told the assembled farm families that the federation is the only cooperative which places its main emphasis on quality and obtaining markets of farm produce.

"The Farmers' federation," he said "is trying to increase and build up income on every farm in this county. It is constantly working to develop programs which will improve the farms of Polk County.

"Quality is the great thing we must strive for. We must get quality in our crops, our livestock, and our poultry. And most important of all we must put quality into our own lives."

James R. Trowbridge, chairman of the Polk County farm improvement contest committee, announced that 51 families are participating this year. The contest is sponsored by the Farmers' federation in cooperation with the government agencies connected with agriculture.

A large group of musical performers took part in the entertainment program. Outstanding among them were the Pritchard brothers' trio and Mrs. Vincent Mackenzie, who played the accom-

Continued on Back Page