CURB REPORTER

Well, the Curb Reporter and his family are off to the beach for a week's vacation. Such grand things do happen sometimes, even to a reporter. And we'll be just as eager to get back to the mountains . . . The news will be taken care of in the office by Miss Peggy Lincoln and Miss Bell Jackson. Both young ladies were Tryon high school reporters for The Polk County News, and when they went to college both took an active interest in their college newspapers and became editors of them. And now they will be back home next week to help get out the hometown newspaper. Fortunately, we have on the staff, Monte Dedman, who is correspondent of The Asheville, Spartanburg, Greenville, Charlotte and Hendersonville newspapers as well as the United Press at Raleigh. So we feel that Tryon will be fully covered from a news standpoint. Then, look what's coming up: Chairman Carroll Rogers and Julian Hester are winding up their campaign for Polk County's quota of $150 for the Airplane Ambulance that Governor Broughton wants to give England as a gift from the liberty loving people of North Carolina. Charlie Lynch, head of the Polk County Council of the National Civil Defense organization is bubbling with ideas, and has
