

Rufus Gosnell Dies

Rufus Gosnell, well-known Tryon citizen and member of a large family of this section who was injured several weeks ago when he fell from his mule and was knocked unconscious long enough for the mule to step on him and injure his legs so badly that one of them had to be amputated, died about 10:30 this morning in a Spartanburg hospital. Funeral arrangements had not been made at press time.

Claude Smith of the Tryon Motor Company and Claude, Jr., returned from a deep sea fishing trip at Little River, S. C., last week and report catching two buckets full of fish.
