

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY
SETH M. VINING, EDITOR $1.50 Year in the Carolinas

Vol. 14, Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, AUG. 5, 1941

CURB REPORTER

Donations for 400 more cigarettes for the British over-seas soldiers and sailors were received this morning. Anthony Eden wrote last year to the Over-Seas Tobacco League: "May I convey to you the grateful thanks of all ranks of the army for the great work that the Over-Seas League Tobacco Fund has done."

Miss Maria Marko is having her Bulletin changed from New York to Tryon R. F. D., where she is spending her vacation at Mrs. Nessmith's. J. M. Jackson of Spartanburg Route One, who was up for the Jackson family reunion is a new subscriber of the Bulletin. Mrs. James H. Perkins is changing hers from South Dartmouth to New Bedford, Mass. W. D. Edwards of Wytheville, Va., has renewed his subscription to the Bulletin and Polk County News. . . . The Japanese suspend ship service with U. S. and leave 600 Americans stranded there. Germans claim Russians are encircled South of Kiev. . . . Secretary Hull predicts final victory for "Free Peoples."

SOFTBALL TODAY

Adams-Millis No. 1 softball team will play Adams-Millis regular hard ball team a game of softball this afternoon at 4:15 at Adams-Millis ball park. Kilowaters and A.-M. No. 2 will follow.

EUGENE EDWARDS, 13, TAKEN BY DEATH

Eugene Edwards, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph T. Edwards of Mill Spring died Monday night at a Tryon hospital after an illness of a week.

Surviving besides his parents, are two brothers, Ralph Edwards, Jr., and Markle Edwards; a sister, Miss Corrie Ellen Edwards; his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Corrie Edwards of Columbus; and his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Williams of Mill Spring route 2.

Stolen Car Recovered

State Highway Patrolman Robert Miller and Chief of Police Claude Scoggins of Tryon recovered a stolen 1939 Ford coupe belonging to Mrs. Bessie Clagerakis of Asheville on Friday. The car was stolen on July 31st in Asheville and was abandoned in South Carolina just below Tryon. A farmer saw two young men desert the car in a hurry.

SINGING SUNDAY AT MOUNTAIN PAGE

There will be an all-day home coming and singing convention at Mt. Page church on the second Sunday, August 10th, with dinner on the ground. Adger M. Page, music editor for James D. Vaughan of Lawrenceburg, Tenn., will be there. All singers and the public have a special invitation.

Nearly 2 Inches of Rain

WEATHER: Monday, high 83; low 68; rain 1.98.