

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY
SETH M. VINING, EDITOR $1.50 Year in the Carolinas

Vol. 14. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, AUGUST 8, 1941

Brother of Tryon Man Dies In Plane Crash

Fleetwood D. Hancock, 40, chief petty officer in the U. S. Coast Guard, and brother of Craig Hancock of Tryon, was killed Tuesday when the amphibian plane in which he was riding crashed against a rock while flying at low altitude about 25 miles off San Francisco. None of the bodies has been found.

All Stars Next Week

The All Stars game to be played next Wednesday night at 8:15 at McCormick Field, Asheville between representatives of the Western North Carolina Industrial League teams and the Tri-State League teams will have two members of the Adams-Millis nine, Short Stop Harold Culler and First Baseman M. C. Staton.

Golf Tournament At Tryon Country Club This Week

A Ball Sweepstakes golf tournament will be played at the Tryon Country Club this weekend. It will be an 18 holes medal play handicap affair. Prizes will be awarded to first, second and third low net. Entry fee 25 cents. Secretary E. C. Rowe, expects a large turn-out for this tournament.

A new process for using staple cotton instead of cotton linters in the manufacture of smokeless powder will be given a plant test soon at Hopewell, Va.

J. T. Arledge Elected President of Tryon Chamber of Commerce

The directors of the Tryon Chamber of Commerce who were elected Thursday night at Missildine's Hall met this morning at 10 o'clock and elected the following officers for the coming year: President J. T. Arledge; vice-president, L. F. Buchanan; secretary-treasurer, Seth M. Vining. The Board of Directors elected by the Chamber of Commerce are as follows: For one year, retiring president K. A. Bowen, J. T. Arledge and Seth M. Vining; for a period of two years, Mrs. Rebecca Jervey, A. W. Brintnall, J. B. Hester, Sr.; for three years, C. H. Helms, L. F. Buchanan, Ernest Kerhulas.

The secretary-treasurer's report showed that many seeds of good will and cooperation with neighboring communities had been sowed during the year and that an advertising program within the limits of the budget had been carried out. There was no indebtedness. A small balance was left in the treasury but this would be needed for this year's supply of folders and literature on Tryon and the surrounding area. J. T. Arledge reported that the county government would cooperate in advertising the county as a whole with every section represented. W. M. Hester reported that a committee was at work trying to get up a hotel folder for Tryon. A committee was appointed to petition the Town Council to prevent double parking on Trade street

-----CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE-----