CURB REPORTER

Prof. Henry P. Judd of Honolulu, Hawaii, was among the interesting visitors to Tryon who registered at the Mountain Industries shop on Friday. Professor Judd is a native of Jackson County and has not been back to this section in nine years . . . . . The weather for Friday: High 87; low 69; rain .36 . . . . . Rotary had a speaker on Friday who teaches men how to read character, tell whether a man is honest, truthful, thrifty, industrious, neat, etc. Said he could tell a man's walk whether he was slovenly or not. I thought of the pile of papers on my desk, and my kangaroo walk, I decided not to be analyzed . . . . . I have never met Joe Dennis. He has been an invalid since birth. The last time he lived in Tryon was when his father was cashier of the First Bank & Trust Co., of Tryon. He made many friends then and all of them speak of his keen mind and interesting personality. His interest in those friends and in Tryon is also keen—so keen that he has continued his subscription to the Tryon Daily Bulletin for the past seven years since the family left Tryon and are now living at Clover, S. C. He and his father, J. A. Dennis, were through Tryon the other day and renewed his subscription. One
