Presbyterians Give Farewell Party to Schilletters

The members of the Tryon Presbyterian church gave a farewell party on Sunday afternoon in honor of Major and Mrs. W. A. Schilleter, who are leaving Tryon on August 15th. The party was held at the home of Rev. and Mrs. D. M. McGeachy on Lynn road, the former Sidney Lanier place, which was attractively decorated with summer flowers. Tea was served on the spacious lawn where the guests were assembled. On behalf of the members of the church, Supt. G. Isham Henderhson presented the guests of honor with a beautiful salad bowl in recognition of the services of the Schilletters to the church and in appreciation of their fellowship and leadership. Major Schilleter had been treasurer of the church for over 12 years and had served in various capacities as Sunday school superintendent, teacher, deacon and elder. Mrs. Schilleter was a teacher in the primary department and had been president of the Woman's Auxiliary. Major Schilleter responded to the gift with expressions of gratitude for their kindness and for their cooperation during the 17 years he and Mrs. Schilleter had made Tryon home. He expressed regrets at having to leave Tryon and the many friends here, but on account of being called into active service in the army it was necessary to move. However, they would always hold a warm spot in their hearts for Tryon.
