

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY
SETH M. VINING, EDITOR $1.50 Year in the Carolinas

Vol. 14, Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, AUG. 12, 1941

SOLDIER NOTES

Chairman Julian Hester of the Polk County Draft Board has received instructions for release to the press which states that every registrant can appeal from any classification of his local board to the State Director of Selective Service. The registrant must appeal within ten days after mailing of notice of classification. The new men registered under the Selective Training and Service Act of July 1st will be treated in the same manner as the ones registered previously. There will be no distinction.

BRYANT - LANGLEY

Rev. J. A. Langley and Miss Cleo Bryant, of Dunbar, S. C., were married at the Presbyterian manse at McColl on Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. E. S. Coates, the bride's pastor, officiated, using the ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. B. J. Brvant and the late Mrs. Bryant, of Dunbar.

Mr. Langley was pastor of the Clio Baptist church for ten and a half years and recently accepted a call to the Reedy Creek Baptist church, near Marion, where they will be at home after a two-week's trip to the mountains.—Pee Dee Advocate.

Mr. Langley's first wife was the former Miss Bessie Jackson, daughter of Mrs. John L. Jackson, and the late Mr. Jackson. She died several years ago. The Langleys always spent their vacations in Trycn and he has preached often in the pulpits of Polk County.

CURB REPORTER

Louis H. Bosse, formerly foreman of The Polk County News under R. D. Lyons and S. T. Wood, was in Tryon today visiting old friends while enroute to Abbeville, South Carolina, from Brevard where he has been spending part of his vacation. Mr. Bosse is 77 years old and has been in the printing business 67 years, starting at the age of 10. He said if it hadn't been for the newspaper business, he would have been one of the most ignorant men in South Carolina. While setting type as a boy he read some of the best copy written by the leading men of those days. In setting the type by hand he had to set it letter by letter to build the words that gave himself an education. He was working on the Atlanta Constitution when the great Henry W. Grady died. He began his printing career in 1874 on the Spartanburg Herald which then was a weekly paper. He taught the father of the new S. C. Senator Roger Peace how to set type. Mr. Bosse has had an interesting and useful career in being an important link between the thought and the printed word. Through all the trials and tribulations of 67 years of printing he has emerged cheerful in spirit, loving mankind in general and trying to enjoy in spirit through others all the joys of life . . . . .

Continued on Back Page