deavor which has gone to their making. It is very heartening for helpers and sufferers alike to know that throughout your vast country so many are remembering us with such practical sympathy.

We would like this message of heartfelt thanks from Co. Antrim to pass through all the channels of your organization down to the small groups and finally the individual workers and subscribers. Tell them we are most sincerely grateful and that above all we value the kindness of heart and good will which prompts their service. We know that the unstinted help which we are receiving from American sources means everything to the future of all we hold dear.

Yours sincerely,
Elizabeth F. Patrick,
(Mrs. Malcolm Patrick).
