

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY
SETH M. VINING, EDITOR $1.50 Year in the Carolinas

Vol. 14, Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, AUG. 22, 1941

CURB REPORTER

Tom Marshall who entered the Amateur golf tournament at Myers Park in Charlotte this week, qualified for the second flight with an 81; lost Thursday to W. Palmer 6-5 Weather for Thursday at 5 p. m.: High 81; low 67; rain .13 Fred Allen, Hendersonville Chamber of Commerce secretary has resigned to accept similar position with Lakeland, Florida Chamber Tryon Baptist Sunday school will have a part on the quarterly Sunday school program at Hendersonville on Sunday afternoon at the Hendersonville First Baptist church, 3 p. m. (DST) Have you forgotten, too. Friends of the Overseas Tobacco Fund who want to help furnish smokes for the British soldiers and sailors say they forget to send in their donations. More contributions came in this morning The Germans claim they have killed, wounded or captured 5,000,000 Russians so far, and that Odessa, the Russian Black Sea port is in ruins. Leningrad (old St. Petersburg), is preparing for bitter seige. The Russians say 2,000,000 Germans are dead or wounded The Germans arrested 6,000 Jews in Paris in connection with sabotage The Shields and Steadman descendants will hold a family reunion at Rainbow Lake, Spartanburg, on Sunday. All

Continued on Back Page

COURT NEWS

Polk County Superior Court had a busy session Thursday at Oclumbus.

Pierce Miller, 19, colored was sentenced by Judge Don Phillips to not less than 12 nor more than 15 years for assault with intent to rape a married white woman of the Pea Ridge section. Miller was captured by officers about two hours after the attack. He was hiding in another Negro's house. The prisoner was taken to Asheville for safe keeping. He will serve in the Central prison at Raleigh.

The trial of Gary Copeland, of Greer, S. C., charged with "murder by drowning," began on Thursday at 2:30 p. m. Witnesses for the state had been put on the stand, and only a minor part of them was heard at the close of court. Copeland is charged by his father-in-law, Guy Taylor, with causing his son, George, to lose his life by knocking him into Lake Adger on Saturday night, June 21, during a fishing party.

Adams-Millis No. 1 and Kilowatters Win

In the first game of a double-header at the Adams-Millis ball park on Thursday afternoon Adams-Millis No. 1 beat the Bird Hunters by the score of 4 to 3. In the second game the Kilowatters beat Adams-Millis No. 2 by the score of 7 to 2.

Gov. Broughton reappointed A. J. Maxwell as commissioner of revenue for North Carolina. Maxwell is considered one of the best commissioners in the nation.