

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY
SETH M. VINING, EDITOR $1.50 Year in the Carolinas

Vol. 14. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., WED., AUGUST 27, 1941

CURB REPORTER

The weather for Tuesday showed a high of 91, low 68, rain .05 . . . . .
Persia is resisting the invasion of the British and Russians who are attempting to take charge of the country before the Germans do the same. Turkey is worried, trying to keep neutral. The British are already in control of most of Persia's vital oil reservoirs and railroad terminals . . . . . The Russians are defending Leningrad against the German drive. The Russians claim they have destroyed over 100 German airplanes this week and maintain air supremacy over the city. The Germans claim capture of another large Russian City, (name too long and funny to spell out) . . . . . Most of the United States laboring people are getting ready for a big weekend which ends on Labor Day. There will be trips to the mountains and to the sea. The day marks the close of many resorts in the mountains and at the sea coast . . . . . New York had a two inch rainfall that tied up traffic yesterday . . . . . Buchanan's offering fifty count note book paper, says the next shipment will contain only about 30 to 35 sheets for the same price, and he advises everyone to buy a season's supply and save the 20 or 25 per cent . . . . . President Roosevelt is sending a military mission to China to ad-

CONTINUED ON BACK PAGE

Joint Kiwanis - Rotary Meet September 2, At Oak Hall

The Tryon Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs will hold a joint meeting at Oak Hall hotel Tuesday, September 2, at 1 o'clock. It will be a joint agricultural meeting with emphasis on poultry. Dr. Roy S. Dearstyne, head of the poultry department at North Carolina State College, will be present to give the principal talk. He will be accompanied here by C. F. Parrish, extension poultryman, also of State College.

Early Brantley of Rotary and C. M. Howes of Kiwanis are in charge of luncheon arrangements and decorations. They are planning a chicken plate with Kiwanis and Rotary decorations plus a pen of live birds from one of the outstanding breeders in the county.

In addition to the two poultrymen from Raleigh several other guests are expected.

LYNCH AT KIWANIS

C. J. Lynch, chairman of Polk County Council of Defense was the chief speaker at the Kiwanis Club on Tuesday at 1 p. m., at Oak Hall. He announced the appointment of Julian B. Hester as chairman of the Airplane Observation posts in Polk County. These posts are to report activities of airplanes to the Army airports during defense maneuvers. Mr. Hester will announce plans later as instructions come in from Washington.

Donations for 200 more cigarettes for the British over-seas soldiers and sailors came in today.