SCOUT MEETING TONIGHT

The Tryon Boy Scout Troop No. 1 will meet tonight at the school gymnasium. Scoutmaster Bill McCall is eager to have a full attendance.

JUNIOR GOLF RESULTS

Miss Hope Rogers, golf champion of Converse college and her partner, Bob Lightcn, was the winning team in the Junior Golf Tournament finals at the Tryon Country Club Wednesday. They defeated Miss Ruth Rowe and Robert Green one up.

Flag Tournament Next

A flag tournament for this weekend is the next event at the Tryon Country Club. It will be an 18 hole handicap affair. Entry fee 25c. The Parent-Child tournament is now underway, and will end Saturday.

OUR DEFENSE MORALE

It should be emphasized, in the interest of fairness, that a high proportion of the Army's enlisted personnel has excellent morale. Further, in the Navy, air corps and marine corps there is no morale problem whatsoever, as these branches of the fighting forces have no conscripts. Most of the conscripts have gone into the infantry, and it is there that the morale problem exists. Progress is being made in bettering the lot of the men, but it looks as if a good deal more must be done if the largest peace-time American Army in our history is to have the morale that is essential to an A-1 fighting force.

CURB REPORTER
