CURB REPORTER

One person has offered the use of his field glasses to Julian B. Hester for use in operating the observation posts during the airplane maneuvers early next month. Nine more pair of glasses are needed. L. A. Avant president of the Polk County Telephone Company has offered his cooperation in making a private telephone line to the tower on Tryon Mountain and one to post observer Robert S. McFarland at Columbus. Governor Broughton says, "Please make every effort to complete organization by September 15th . . . . . Among the business trades made recently was the sale of the Rector Laundry building by C. M. Eargle to N. R. Rector. Mr. Rector has occupied the building for about 15 years. The interior of the building has undergone many changes with the addition of modern equipment from time to time in an effort to keep pace with an expanding business. And seeing into the future some of the equipment was purchased before the volume of business justified it, so that today Tryon has one of the most up-to-date laundries in the country . . . . . The Germans say they are about to capture Leningrad from the Russians . . . . . A lot of interest is being shown in the motorcade
