Communication from The Hon. Lady Ward, C. B. E.

Dudley House Committee.
46 Grosvenor Street,
London, W-1.
July 17th, 1941.

Dear Mr. Vanderhoef:

This house has been a receiving Depot for gifts from America to Great Britain since February 1940. We have in that time received a very large number of consignments from the British War Relief Society.

As you probably know, the invoices we receive do not show the names of any individual Branches, so that we only know that the shipments come from British War Relief. I feel, however, that all Branches throughout the country have contributed to the splendid gifts of clothing which come to this house, and I would like to send to you and to all your helpers and to those working under the auspices of our Branch in your Sub-Committees, the very cordial thanks of my Committee.

It may interest you to know that all of us who work here are American born women and it is such a pleasure to us to carry on your work over here and so to be connected in this way with you in the magnificent help which you are sending to the people of Great-Britain.

I think you would feel greatly touched and rewarded if you could hear, as I have, some poor woman say 'This has come all the way from America. How kind and good they are over there to think
