

CURB REPORTER

...Continued from Page Three...

county did as well it would make 100,000 garments; and if each state did as well there would be nearly five million garments for the British War Relief. Each person doing even a small part helps to swell the total tremendously, and that is what makes effective relief. Mrs. Homer Ellertson states that the request for 100 comfort kits from Polk County chapter was oversubscribed by 12 Richard McClure who used to deliver The Bulletin is now in college at Auburn, Ala., and writes to send him The Bulletin that he would pay later, and as to his credit, ask anybody who knows him An item for Oddities: The other day Mrs. T. A. Rippey broke open a hen egg and out dropped a smaller hard shelled egg about the size of a quail egg "MEG" the lost cockerel spaniel, was located within a few minutes after The Bulletin was out Wednesday. Harrison Bridgeman is always one of the first persons to buy a Bulletin as soon as it is one the street. The dog had gone to his house Dr. Lea reports still having some Tryon Grapes The weather for Wednesday was 59 low and 85 high. Rev. C. L. McGavern made unusually good talks this week. One on Monday at the P.-T. A., and the other on Tuesday at the Kiwanis meeting where he spoke on the Realization of God's presence everywhere Joe Camp writing from Middlesboro, Ky., says: "I have read the 'Bull' for so many years that I feel I can't do without it. Please hurry with my first copy."

The Bulletin—6 months $1.

For Good Riding Phone
NEWMAN STABLES
Fine Saddle Horses
PHONE 199

School Days

Mean HOMEWORK and HOMEWORK Means
EYE-WORK

Protect children's eyes now, give them a chance to get good marks—equip them with an

I E S STUDY LAMP

On Sale At Many Leading Stores.

DUKE
Power Co.
PHONE 210