

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY
SETH M. VINING, EDITOR $1.50 Year in the Carolinas

Vcl. 14. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, SEPT. 19, 1941

Erskine Society to Meet At Church on Tuesday

The Woman's Society of Erskine Memorial Congregational Church will meet on Tuesday at 4 o'clock at the church. Dr. C. Arthur Lincoln will be the chief speaker and will discuss the work of the society for the coming season. Mrs. K. A. Bowen and Mrs. F. K. McFarland will be joint hostesses. All friends of the church are invited to attend.

SALUDA STUDENTS LEAVE FOR COLLEGE

A number of Saluda's younger set have left for various colleges this fall. The list includes:

Lillian Butler, Anderson college; Cleo Hall, Lees-McRae; Ruby Thompson, Mars Hill; Shirley Kimball, Kentucky Teachers; Laura Woods, Winthrop; Marion Reece, University of Texas; Frederick Arledge, Clemson; John Cooper, University of South Carolina; Robert Hugh Pace and Nolan Pace, Wofford; H. C. Russell, Berea; Ernest Chappell, Western Carolina Teachers college; Coles Mayes, Stricker Mayes and Billy Kirk, Christ school; Albert Bell and Bill Pace, Mars Hill; Charles Cooper, North Carolina State.

To Honor Bride-Elect

Mrs. James R. Mallory and Mrs. Ansel Mitchell will entertain on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mallory in Landrum in honor of Miss Lois Slate Avant, who will be married in November to the Rev. Archie Ellis of Landrum.

CURB REPORTER

Here is an item that should have gone in Ballenger's Ad, but I forgot it when it went back to the composing room: Lipton's Continental Noodle Soup Mix, cooks in 7 minutes and makes from 4 to 6 servings and costs 10 cents a package. It is a powder in cellophane package, and contains ground up dehydrated foods The weather for Thursday was 86 high and 56 low Buy home grown products and help keep trade flowing. Tryon grapes, pears, tomatoes, beans, figs, potatoes. Any farmer knows that he can't get milk out of a cow unless he feeds her. A farmer can't get a market for his product unless he helps feed the market by trading there himself The Bulletin is going to get educated more than ever this year as it enters more colleges. New subscriptions are going to Johns Hopkins university, Baltimore, to Miss Betty Conrad, Misses Ruth McFarland, Hope Schilleter, Carolyn Kelly and Mary Palmer at Woman's College, University of North Carolina, Greensboro, Miss Carolene Prince at University of South Carolina, Columbia, Miss Clare Trowbridge, the Child Education Foundation, New York, Miss Virginia Kelly at Radcliffe college, Cambridge, Mass.; George Wick, III, at Cor-
-----Continued on Back Page-----