

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY
SETH M. VINING, EDITOR $1.50 Year in the Carolinas

Vol. 14, Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, SEPT. 30, 1941

CURB REPORTER

New Bulletin subscription entered for Miss Ann Bingham, who has returned to Smith college. Mrs. Lovering Hathaway has changed her Bulletin to Dedham, Mass. Renewal subscription made for Corporal Franklin Little at Fort Bragg, N. C., and for Roland Ruppe at Cooper's Gap . . . In the world news the Russians claim to be pushing the Germans in many places while losing ground in some others. The U. S. Justice Department Inspector has recommended the deportation of Harry Bridges for his unAmerican activities. Joe Louis retained his heavy weight boxing championship Monday night by knocking out Lcu Nova. The baseball world championship series begins on Wednesday in New York between the New York Yankees and Brooklyn Dodgers . . . Some more bait to interest me in going to South America has arrived. It is a pictorial South American booklet featuring Buenos Aires, "incredible Rio de Janiero—metropolis of beauty and gaiety in a spectacular setting," "Santos—leading coffee port of the world", "Sao Paulo—center of Brazil's wealth, industry and coffee" and other magnificent, picturesques places . . . There's a football game Friday at Harmon Field. One of the players expressed dis-

—CONTINUED ON BACK PAGE—

Yale Minister Coming To Tryon, October 7th

The Inter-Church School of Religion, which will hold its first session in the Episcopal church on Tuesday evening, October 7th, offers to the people of Tryon and vicinity, an unusual opportunity. The general lectures, the first of which will be by the Rev. Henry Hallam Tweedy, D. D., of Yale University Divinity School; the normal classes for church workers and parents; the discussion classes in life problems for young people, promise to be of great value. Those who intend to enroll as members of the school will facilitate matters, if they will make early enrollment with John G. Landrum, Jr., at the Tryon Bank and Trust Co. The fee is one dollar for the entire course.

Reception For Teachers At Sunnydale Thursday

At Sunnydale, on Thursday afternoon, October 2nd, will be held the annual reception for the faculty of the Tryon Public School. From 4 to 5:30 there will be open house, and a cordial invitation is extended to every citizen of Tryon, young and old, to come to Sunnydale, and greet the new, as well as the old, teachers, and enjoy a social cup of tea with their friends. Don't forget the date, Oct. 2nd, from 4 to 5:30.—IM.

All the nation's state motor vehicle registration agencies are conducting an inventory of trucks and buses for possible emergency use.