Mrs. Lemort Died Friday At Hendersonville

Mrs. Jeanne M. Golay Lemort, formerly of Tryon, died at her home in Hendersonville on Friday morning following an illness of several months.

Funeral services will be held at the home on Fifth avenue west at 2 o'clock on Sunday afternoon. Burial will be in the family plot in the Tryon cemetery. The following Tryon men have been asked to serve as pallbearers at the cemetery around 3:15: G. H. Holmes, Jim Screven, C. M. Howes, Fred E. Swann, C. J. Lynch, R. S. Jackson.

Mrs. Lemort was a native of Lauzanne, Switzerland. She came to this country as a young girl. Her husband, A. J. Lemort, who planted the Lemort vineyard here, died about 25 years ago.

The deceased is survived by two daughters, the Misses Bertha and Marguerite Lemort of Hendersonville; one son, Henry, of California and two step-sons, and two grandchildren.

Mrs. Eugene Turner has returned to Tryon after spending the summer in New England. Mr. Turner is on a lecture tour for the Y. M. C. A., in Georgia. Their sons are continuing their post graduate studies. Frank is at the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy at Medford, Mass., and Eugene is at Yale Divinity school.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith have returned to Tryon after their vacation in the North.
