

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

5c COPY

(The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper)

5c COPY

SETH M. VINING, EDITOR

$1.50 Year in the Carolinas

Vol. 14. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N C., MONDAY, OCT. 13, 1941

CURB REPORTER

Tryon high school team lost to Christ School 68 to 0 on Saturday afternoon. The locals went up against several good teams put out by the prep school. A goodly number of local fans went to the game The weather for Tryon for Saturday was 76 high and 51 low; for Sunday it was 81 high and 39 low Vernon Fowles, son of Mrs. Ella Fowles of Tryon has received his "wings" in the air service North Carolina State Fair is in full sway this week at Raleigh. This is the 85th fair put on by the State. There will be 44 directors of exhibits. 4-H Club and Future Farmers of America displays will be outstanding among the educational features of the Fair, it is said A Miami business man writes a friend in Tryon that he thinks the mountains of North Carolina the prettiest place in the world during October and November Erskine Memorial church is planning to celebrate its 50th anniversary next month. Plans will be announced later . . . The federal tax on telephone messages are now in effect according to an ad of the Pcll County Telephone Co., delivered to customers. Reservations are being received today by Mrs. O'Shields from those wishing to attend the dinner.

Continued on Back Page

Dr. William H. Denny To Speak Here On Tuesday

The Tryon Inter-Church school of Religion will hold its second session at the Episcopal church on Tuesday evening at 7:45. The Rev. William Henry Denny, of the Covenant-First Presbyterian church of Washington, D. C., will lecture on "St. Paul and His Age." Following the lecture there will be classes for Sunday school teachers, parents, church workers and young people.

TUCKER RITES

Landrum, Oct. 13.—Funeral services for Luther Tucker, who died on Saturday morning, were conducted at Fairmont Baptist church this morning at 11 o'clock.

The Rev. Broadus Belue and the Rev. T. E. Reid officiated. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Mr. Tucker came to Landrum six months ago from Washington, D. C., where he lived for 22 years.

He is survived by two sons, Paul Tucker and Willis Tucker of Worley, Ky.; a daughter, Mrs. Evelyn McDaniel, also of Worley; his mother, Mrs. Enoch Tucker, of Landrum; four brothers, Hovey of Landrum and Troy and Clarence of Tryon; and Harvey of Anderson; and three sisters, Mrs. Mary Wright of Hickory, Mrs. Irving Sarrett and Mrs. Norman Stepp of Cherokee Falls.

Merchants Association will meet Wednesday night 7:15 at Sunnydale with the Chamber of Commerce.