Polk County was represented at the State Fair this year by three 4-H judging teams. The poultry team composed of Floyd Fagan, Joe Stockton, and Cecil Smith placed second in the entire contest. They were high team in judging Barred Plymouth Rocks with Floyd Fagan as high individual in Barred Rock Judging.

The livestock judging team of Randal Lathan, Bruce Cantrell, and Harold Weaver placed fourth in the State livestock judging. Bruce Cantrell was second high individual in sheep judging.

Hubert McIntyre, Wilbur McAbee, and Russell Garrett entered the seed judging contest with Hubert placing third in hay and sweet potato judging.

The boys spent Thursday and Friday nights in the State College Y. M. C. A. In addition to visiting the State Fair the boys also saw the state capitol building, the State museum, hall of history and other places of interest.
