

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

5c COPY

(The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper)

5c COPY

SETH M. VINING, EDITOR

$1.50 Year in the Carolinas

Vol. 14. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, OCT. 23, 1941

Observation Posts on Job

Chairman Julian B. Hester and Coordinator Wayne Creasman have organized airplane observation posts over the county to report on the movements of airplanes in this section during maneuver week. Two big bombers flew over Tryon this morning. The observers are as follows:

Columbus: Robert S. McFarland, Captain; Billy Burgess, Bob Gibson, J. C. Gibson, J. Alvin Wilson, Jr.

Coxe: Sam Dobson, Captain; Horace Scoggins, Pearson Gray (colored), Mrs. James L. Houser, James L. Houser, James L. Houser, Jr., A. C. Roddy, Albert Roddy, Lee Twitty (colored), Fletcher Twitty (colored).

Saluda: Edwin Leland, Captain; Roy Baisden, Dennys Cary-Elwes, William G. Egerton, Roy Johnson, Robert Michael, Daniel Pace, Hugh Seay, Roy Ward.

Tryon: M. B. Caldwell, Captain; Spurgeon Arledge, Richard Arthur, James Baker, Harrison Bridgeman, Jr., Billy Dick, Robert Dick, Jimmy Edney, Marvin Edwards, Jr., Marion Edwards, John Paul Jones, Ellis Kuykendall, Lock McGeachy, Tom Melton, Morgan Phillip Morris, Charlie Owens.

Hot Grease Burns Baby

Caroline Jones, 18-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jones of Valhalla is in St. Luke's hospital for treatment of burns received on Tuesday afternoon when a pan of hot grease turned over on her and burned her body and face severely.

CURB REPORTER

C. J. Lynch and the Curb Reporter attended the banquet of Steapship & Tourist Agents Assn. at Asheville on Wednesday night. The purpose of the visit was to sell the idea of directing travelers to Tryon, and to assure the Tourist Agents that Tryon hotels and inns would cooperate with them 100 per cent. This announcement was made to the 300 agents assembled at the George Vanderbilt. Mr. Lynch did a good selling job for Tryon. They expressed appreciation of the hospitality of Tryon people and their admiration for the scenery of the community. Each one of the agents will be sent copies of the Tryon Chamber of Commerce folder and a list of the hotels cooperating to bring guests to Tryon. In this connection it would be well to note that somebody has to go to extra expense for trips of this kind. There is gasoline to buy, automobiles to use and personal time taken up,—time that you would like to use for something else. When you pay your dues to the Chamber of Commerce or contribute to the special entertainment expenses you do a lot, and it helps the fellow who gives BOTH time and money. It is only by every business person, innkeeper and professional man doing his part that the community population is kept up to a minimum to assure

Continued on Back Page