MARSHALL 13; TRYON 6

Tryon lost to Marshall Friday at Marshall by a score of 13 to 6. Marshall had a line plunge offensive which gained two touchdowns. An extra point was made by a place kick.

The Tryon team was not as fast as usual due to the type of field which they were not accustomed to playing on. Tryon scored in the opening minutes when McGeachy blocked a kick and Baker fell on the ball in the end zone.

Rector of Marshall and Jack Melton of Tryon were the outstanding players. Line plunges by Beatson of Tryon was also outstanding.—Marvin Edwards.

Noted Authors Arrive In Tryon Tonight

Mr. and Mrs. Struthers Burt, both well-known authors, who visit Tryon occasionally, will arrive here tonight from their ranch in Wyoming enroute to their winter home in Southern Pines. Mr. and Mrs. Burt will be guests at Mill Farm over the weekend.

GOLF NEWS

Secretary Edgar Rowe of the Tryon Country Club states that another record was broken on the local golf links on Friday afternoon, when Hon. F. P. Bacon played a one over par 37 for the nine holes. He was playing with Julian Calhoun and Frank S. Wilcox. Secretary Rowe says this fine score makes the winner eligible for the "maturity cup."
