

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

5c COPY

(The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper)

5c COPY

SETH M. VINING, EDITOR

$1.50 Year in the Carolinas

Vol. 14. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, OCT. 28, 1941

Volunteer For Defense

Volunteer enrollment blanks have been placed in the different communities of the county, and any one who is at all interested in doing volunteer duty of any kind can get one of these blanks from these people.

Mayor Roy T. Baisden or Edwin Leland—Saluda.

Sid Feagan, and Woodrow Wilkins, W. C. McGinnis — Green's Creek.

James Egerton, Twitty Jackson—Mill Spring.

Vernon Wilson, Pharaoh Lynch—Cooper's Gap.

Robert McFarland, John Gibson—Columbus.

George Cathey—Tryon.

Show your patriotism, fill out one of these blanks, and get it back to the person from whom you got it right away. There is something everyone can do for the defense of his Country. The slogan of the Polk County Civilian Defense Council is—"A Country Worth Saving Is A Country Worth Serving." Help save your Country by serving it.

HALLOWE'EN CARNIVAL AT MILL SPRING

A Hallowe'en Carnival will be held at Mill Spring school Thursday night, October 30th, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. The public is cordially invited. An outstanding event of the evening will be the crowning of Miss "Mill Spring", winner of the popularity contest now in progress. Candidates are Mabel Allen, Mabel Carswell, Frances Jackson, Betty Lou Connor, and Marie Arrowood.

CURB REPORTER

Tryon and Polk County celebrated Navy Day with 1.30 inches of rain after a long drought. The high temperature was 69 and the low 53 . . . . Mrs. C. B. DuCharme who returned to Tryon last week has had her Bulletin changed from Grosse Pointe, Mich. Wayne V. O'Niel, who bought the Bowes place this spring is changing his from New Hampshire to Greenwich, Conn. The Misses Cushing and Thompson, who had changed theirs from Bath, Maine, to New York until Nov. 1, will arrive at the Spanish Court this weekend . . . . Mrs. Pleda Jackson of Hendersonville gave her Tryon friends a treat on Saturday afternoon when she invited them with about 100 other guests to her Hendersonville home to hear two other friends, Nita Obrassova, lyric coloratura soprano, and Leo Podolsky, pianist. These two noted artists are natives of Russia. They were passing through this section enroute on a concert tour . . . . Tryon's Lanier club will hold its first meeting of the season on Thursday week, Nov. 6th (next week) . . . . The Russians and muddy weather are slowing up the Germans . . . . President Roosevelt said in a speech Monday that Hitler will be stopped. That America will do its part in delivering the goods to its friends, and that the order

Continued on Back Page