

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

5c COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 5c COPY
SETH M. VINING, EDITOR $1.50 Year in the Carolinas

Vcl. 14. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., WED., OCTOBER 29, 1941

Peggy Lincoln In Who's Who Of American Colleges

The News Bureau at the Woman's College, U. N. C., at Greensboro reports that of the 20 students from that college to be listed in this year's edition of Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges will be the name of Miss Peggy Lincoln, a junior, of Tryon.

Miss Lincoln, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. Arthur Lincoln, now managing editor of "The Carolinian", at Woman's College, has been on the staff of the paper ever since entering college. An honor roll student, she was vice-president of the Congregational Christian student group last year and served on the drive for aid to foreign students. She has belonged to the Inter-Faith council for two years, and is now secretary of the student government finance board.

Crow About Electricity

E. Perry Manville will be in charge of the Tryon Rotary club program on Friday at 1 p. m., at Sunnydale. The guest speaker will be Director Crow of Forest City, who is head of the Rural Electric Agency in Polk County.

Atlantans Entertained

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert D. Oliver of Atlanta, Ga., are being entertained by Tryon friends. Mr. Oliver is president of the Atlanta Horse Show and part of the entertainment in their honor here included horseback riding over the Tryon Riding & Hunt club trails.

CURB REPORTER

One of the biggest painting jobs ever undertaken in Tryon is now in progress. It is the repainting of Oak Hall. Color white . . . The weather for Tuesday, high 70, low 55 . . . Rev. George M. Schreyer of the Tryon Methodist church was severely pounded the other night. He was lured away from his home and in his absence the house was entered by some people who awaited his return and surprised him with a big pounding. It is just an old fashion way for members of the church to show their appreciation at the return of the minister to be with church members again for another year. The Conference was held last week . . . The Tryon Chamber of Commerce is already receiving replies from the committee's letter seeking memberships to carry on the work of building the community. Some of the replies include checks and some pledges. A little cooperation goes a long way toward inspiring others to work harder for you . . . Superintendent M. B. Caldwell of the Tryon district schools states that plans are being made to break ground for the new colored school building on Friday afternoon about 4 o'clock. He will make an announcement later . . . $5 will buy 500 government post cards with which to advertise your wants to 500 people, but you will

Continued on Back Page