Miss Lois Avant Bride of Reverend R. Archie Ellis

In a ceremony of charming simplicity, Miss Lois Slate Avant became the bride of Rev. Richard Archie Ellis, Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the Erskine Memorial Congregational church.

Rev. C. Arthur Lincoln, D.D., the bride's pastor, and Dr. E. E. Bomar, of Landrum, S. C., officiated. Palms, branched candelabra holding cathedral tapers and large baskets of white chrysanthemums formed the background for the vows. Mrs. E. E. Missildine, organist, rendered a program of nuptial music prior to the ceremony. "Serenade" by Schubert was played as a violin solo by Mrs. A. J. Mitchell. Edwin Beach sang "Until" by Sanderson and "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms." The "Wedding March" from Lohengrin was played for the processional and Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" for the recessional. After the vows were spoken, the benediction was sung by Mr. Beach.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Louis Anthony Avant. The bridegroom had as his best man his brother, Albert W. Ellis of Myers Mill, S. C. Usher-groomsmen included Marcus B. Caldwell of Tryon, Pete Harris and Faust Nicholson of Greenville, S. C., and John Landrum of Landrum, S. C.

The bride wore a wedding gown of heavy white satin fashioned with a very full skirt extending into a court train, basque waist and long sleeves. She wore her sister's veil of bridal illusion, which
