Thanksgiving Program At Tryon School

The second grade will give a Thanksgiving program at twelve o'clock on Wednesday, November 20th. The scene will be outside the Pilgrim cabins at Plymouth. The Pilgrims will be sitting around a bountifully supplied table. They are: Elbert Brewster, James Cowan; Mr. Winslow, Elliott Richards; Governor Bradford, Vance McCown; Ellen Carver, June Buckner; Floyd Winslow, Floyd Walker; Jane Alden, Geneva Newman.

Massasoit, who is Wiley White, and his braves, Harvey Waters, Thomas Arledge, Ray Mills, John and Billy Parker, will visit the Pilgrims.

Two cats, Ray Melton and Jerry Hale are so hungry that they have come to the Thanksgiving feast.

Other Pilgrim maidens are: Doris Edwards, Arbycine McClure, Margaret Johnston, Joan Pierce, Barbara Lee Powell and Geraldine High.

Children of today are: Barbara Ruth Mills, Myrtle Pittman, Georgia Huntsinger, Charles Boone, Mike Glover, Mack Rollins.

There will be Indian and Pilgrim songs, an Indian corn dance, a Thanksgiving song and other feature to entertain any one who wishes to come to chapel on Wednesday.

School of Religion

Mrs. Elford C. Morgan will lecture at the seventh session of the Tryon School of Religion at the Church of the Holy Cross on Tuesday evening at 7:45. Topic: "The Meaning and Philosophy of the Book of Job."

CLYDE HENSON

Landrum, Nov. 16.—Clyde Henson, 34, well-known resident of the Highland township, Greenville county, died at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon at his home. He had been in ill health for sometime and seriously ill for 10 days.

Mr. Henson was born and reared in the Highland section. He was a son of the late Lewis Henson and Sally Lister Henson.

Surviving are his wife; two sons, Flemmy and L. C. Henson; two daughters, Mary Evelyn and Sylvia Nell Henson; a brother, Claude Henson of Landrum route 2, and a sister, Mrs. Gary Barton of Landrum route 2.

Funeral services will be held Monday at 3:30 o'clock from the Ebenezer-Welcome Baptist church with the Rev. Broadus Belue and the Rev. J. G. Stroud officiating. Burial will be in the church cemetery.—Spartanburg Herald.

Five Guessers Tie In Football Predictions

Five people guessed 13 winners out of 15 in the Ballenger-Jackson contest last week-end. The winner will be determined on how well they guess this week's winners in the advertisement published in today's Bulletin. Those now tied for first place are J. W. Taylor, Woodrow Hague, Mrs. Woodrow Hague, J. Frank Richardson, Seth Vining, Jr.
