

News of the Bazaar

The Tryon Girl Scouts are giving a bazaar on November 26th at their cabin. The proceeds will be given to the British War Relief. Aprons, pot holders, lisle towels of all sorts and colors, home-made cookies, cakes and candies, also breads made by the girls will be sold; also a white elephant table.

Anyone having something to donate to our white elephant, please notify Cynthia Brand, Helen Brundage or the Bulletin office.

Cynthia Brand, Chairman.

Mrs. J. B. Shuman and Clarence Williams have returned to Charlotte after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Ward.

R. R. Astrologow of Salisbury will arrive on Wednesday for a visit with his sister, Mrs. Louis A. Ritz and Mr. Ritz.

Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Golding of Lake Forest, Ill., are spending two weeks at their Tryon home in the Hunting Country.

Bill Derby and Jim Jackson, students at The Citadel, Charleston, are expected home this weekend.

W. C. Ward is in Washington, D. C., on Business.

RUMMAGE SALE, Nov. 23, at old Town Hall given by Baptist Missionary society. Anyone having rummage to donate may call Mrs. R. H. Brady.—Adv. 12, 18, 21c.

Mountain Homespun

FOR FALL FASHIONS

Our new homespuns are coming of the looms, so watch for the new patterns.

Our new homespun is 60 inches wide.

Come in and Browse Around

Blue Ridge Weavers

Gift Shop

Next door to Theatre.

Items for your Thanksgiving Dinner.

We have several nice young weighing from 7 to 9 pounds.

— A L S O —

Young Roasting Chickens

CELERY

LETTUCE

CRANBERRIES

APPLES

ORANGES

GRAPEFRUIT

PECANS

ENGLISH WALNUTS

Par-T-Pak Ginger Ale

Canada Dry Ginger Ale

We will be open until 7:30
Wednesday evening for your convenience.

JACKSON'S

Phone 14

We Deliver

Ralph S. Jackson, Mgr.