

ROBERT DALE LITTLE WEDS MISS WARREN

Dunn, Nov. 23.—Miss Sue Allen Warren of Dunn, daughter of Mrs. Robert L. Warren and the late Dr. Warren, and Robert Dale Little of Durham and Tryon, son of Mrs. Robert Dale Little, Sr., were married at the First Baptist church here Thursday afternoon.

Rev. Thomas W. Fryer of the Baptist church, pastor of the bride, and Rev. F. W. Wiegmann of the Hood Memorial Christian church officiated.

Nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. Mack M. Jernigan at the organ and Mrs. F. W. Wiegmann, soloist. The tapers were lighted by Howard Godwin of Dunn and Henry Kendall of Enfield.

Ushers were Lieutenant Richard Hutchinson of Spokane, Washington, Henry Kendall of Enfield, and Howard Godwin and Duncan C. Wilson of Dunn.

Miss Genevieve Warren, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Mrs. W. W. Stanfield was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Helen Warren, sister of the bride, Mrs. J. R. Hutchinson, Miss Frances McCrary and Miss Rebecca Curtis of High Point.

The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her cousin, W. G. Allen, Jr., of Emporia, Va. James W. Little of New York City served as best man for his brother.

The bride wore a gown of white satin, cut along Princes lines with short train. A finger tip veil was caught by a cornet of orange blossoms. The only ornament she wore was a Sunburst brooch of her mother's. She carried an old-fashioned nosegay of carnations and bavardia tied with white satin bow.

Mr. Little, son of Mrs. Robert Dale Little and the late Mr. Little of Tryon, attended the city schools there and the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He holds a position as clinical photographer at Duke Hospital in Durham.—Charlotte Observer.
