CURB REPORTER

...Continued from Page One ... that even if that happened Major Sharp would still like Tryon well enough to roll his wheel chair along our board walk. This section is wonderful and from Landrum to Saluda to Chimney Rock and to the Coxe Plantation there is plenty of room for kindred spirits who want to live and help live.

Miss Mabel Smith, 21, of Spartanburg is in St. Luke's hospital suffering a broken jaw, a badly bruised and cut face and the loss of several teeth as the result of an auto collision near Bird Mountain on Saturday afternoon. Ted Weaver, 28, also of Spartsburg is suffering minor head injuries.
