

5c PER COPY

$2.00 PER YEAR

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper, Seth M. Vining, Editor.

Vol. 14. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, NOV. 25, 1941

Miss Schilleter Elected To Freshman Council

Greensboro, N. C., Nov. 24.— First official group of officers, the freshman council, has been elected by members of the class of 1945 at Woman's college of the University of North Carolina this year.

Representing freshman residence halls, council member for Cotten Hall is Miss Hope Schilleter of Tryon.

Members of the class will elect major officers at a meeting Tuesday evening, Nov. 25. Dr. W. C.
Jackson, dean of administration at the college, will be on hand for the meeting and will speak to the group. Miss Martha Barnes Kirkland, Wilson, vice-president of the junior class and chairman of the freshman organization for first semester, will be in charge of the session.

Kiwanis Meeting Tonight

Tryon Kiwanis club will be host tonight to an Inter-Club meeting participated in by Hendersonville, Forest City and representatives from other clubs. The meeting will be held at 7 o'clock at Oak Hall hotel. The program will be in charge of C. W. Nessmith.

The weather for Tryon on Monday: High 57; low 41.

CURB REPORTER

The nice painting and decorating job on the interior of the Tryon Theatre was done by Dickey and Foster who advertised recently in the Bulletin . . . . At the Union Thanksgiving service held last Thursday at the Tryon First Baptist church the freewill offering amounted to $43.88. Rev.
B. G. Henry says it has been deposited at the bank to the credit of the Helping Hand society . . . .
A note from Mrs. J. H. Stackhouse of Bennettsville, S. C. She is soliciting orders for blotters which give valuable information about the army and navy . . . .
Congressman Bob Doughton wrote F. W. Crandall recently that he hopes to prevent the imposition of unwise or unfair tax burdens on the people and that Congress should cut out, as far as possible, all non-defense Federal expenditures and then impose taxes strictly on the basis of the ability to pay . . . . A recent issue of a Chicago newspaper gave an outline of the tremendous job held now by Capt. Rufus Zogbaum as boss of the new Navy Pier at
..... Continued on Back Page.....