strongly last weekend when Bishop Mikell of Atlanta came by for a visit with Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Turner and son, Stephen, at their home in Gillette Woods. The purpose of the Bishop's visit was to bless the home. Mr. Turner is the rector of the Episcopal church at Winston-Salem. He is subject to call as a chaplain in the army. His home in Tryon is a retreat for vacation and holidays . . . . .

Fiddler's Convention At Green Creek Saturday Night

An old-time fiddler's convention at Green Creek school on Saturday night, Nov. 29th, promises to be a most enjoyable occasion for the people in all the surrounding country. The best bands are invited to compete with each other for cash prizes. The various kinds of string instruments will be in evidence. Competent judges will make the decisions.

The most popular baby boy and baby girl under three years of age will be selected by popular vote. Any boy or girl baby in Green Creek school district may be entered. Guessing contests, cake walks, lots of fun. Come and bring your friends for a good time.
