CURB REPORTER

Summer came back to Tryon Friday when the thermometer rose to 72 from a low of 29. Just perfect! George A. Gash, formerly of Tryon, writes or three copies of The Polk County News. Wonder what interested him in three different copies W. C. Ward saw Dr. and Mrs. John Birttain Clark in a Washington, D. C., hotel last week. They were on their way to Florida for the winter, and asked to be remembered to their friends here. They usually spend a month at St. Augustine before going to Bradenton for the remainder of the season Town Manager C. Helms says the trash pile near the Howes-Connor bridge is out of town limits and the town authorities do not have jurisdiction over it. However, he pointed out, that there is a state law against throwing trash within a certain distance of the highway. As Highway Commissioner T. Max Watson gets the Bulletin as well as numerous law enforcement officers, maybe the matter will be brought to their attention and rectified. Anyway, the Town of Tryon doesn't want the blame for something not in its jurisdiction. If you had just taken shorthand while you were studying typing, Isham Henderson, Civil Service Secretary at the
