Tryon post office would have a job for you starting at $120 per month. If you know of anyone who can take dictation, see Mr. Henderson. They need stenographers in Washington . . . Everyone who attended the Episcopal Parish dinner-meeting Wednesday night is high in its praise. Bishop Gribbin, Bishop Touret and Dr. Woody made interesting talks and the work of the church is going forward. We should have had a more complete report on it. Every church organization can help the Bulletin a lot by having a definite press representative so as to inform members and friends not present, of the highlights of church activities . . . Everything is all set for the musicale at the Lefty Flynn's Little Orchard tonight at 8:30. Public invited. Admission fee benefit British War Relief. . . . There was standing room only, and not much of that at the Lanier Club Tea and Play at the Library on Friday afternoon . . .

AT LANIER CLUB

Regular meeting of the Lanier club will be held Thursday, Dec. 4th, at the Library. There will be a musical program. Miss Kirby of Asheville will play the violin and Mrs. Beach the piano.

Misses Kate Brown, Dorothy Goodwin, Oveta Barnette of Landrum and Aileen Stone of Spartanburg entertained with a wiener roast on Lake Lanier Thursday night for friends of Camp Croft.

Out-of-town guests of Mrs. W. C. Ward for the tea at Lanier library on Friday were Mrs. J. L. Cobb of Black Mountain, Mrs. George Bays and Mrs. Douglas Blois of Tuxedo.

Mrs. Jesse Foster has returned to Lynn from St. Luke's hospital.

Tryon Presbyterian circle will meet Monday afternoon at 3:45 with Mrs. R. L. Dick. Topic: "We Come to Worship Him." Mrs. J. H. Gaze in charge of program.

Miss Lettie Morgan, who had an appendix operation at St. Luke's hospital, has returned home.

Mrs. Woodrow McKee and baby have returned to Mill Spring from St. Luke's hospital.
