

STATE OF WAR EXISTS BETWEEN U. S. & JAPAN

—Continued from First Page—
the war declaration.

The President said that we would not only defend ourselves against this unpremediated invasion but would make it certain that this form of treachery will never endanger us again. He expressed confidence in the arms and spirit of a united America.

CURB REPORTER

—Continued from Page One—
ready for any emergency here and all over the nation . . . . On Sunday night Edsell Ford presented an auditorium and recreation center to the U. S. Navy training station at Dearborn, Mich., and said that the facilities of the Ford Motor Co., would be turned over to the U. S. Government during the present emergency. Nearly all the countries in North and South America have declared war against Japan, so has England and Holland.

All farmers who wish to have their farm signed up with the AAA for the year 1942 should come into the County Agent's office by the last part of December to sign it up.

LANIER LIBRARY HOURS

Tuesday: 2:30 to 5:30.

Thursday: 9:30 to 12:30.

Saturday: 9:30 to 12:30 and
2:30 to 5:30.

Holden Reading Room open also on Tuesday mornings and Thursday afternoons.—tf.

Tryon Theatre

LAST TIMES TODAY

ADVANCED PRICES

A LITTLE MAN WITH A
BIG IDEA ABOUT . . .

CHRISTMAS GIVING

For such a little fellow Reddy has a lot of big ideas . . . . Take Christmas giving for instance . . . . there he's practical . . . . You give Christmas presents to your family and intimate friends because they're special people . . . .to remind them they are special people. . . . and that you want them to be happy.

Then give something that will keep on giving the year 'round . . . . giving comfort. . . . convenience . . . service.

Nothing so completely meets these requirements as dependable electrical appliances.

Shop electrically! NOW!

DUKE

Power Co.

PHONE 210