

5c PER COPY

$2.00 PER YEAR

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper, Seth M. Vining, Editor.

Vol. 14, Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N C., WEDNESDAY, DEC. 17, 1941

MISCELLANEOUS NEWS

Dr. W. S. Green will have charge of the Tryon Rotary club program Friday at 1 p. m., at Sunnydale. His program will probably be announced in Thursday's Bulletin.

J. N. Jackson had charge of the Tryon Kiwanis club program on Tuesday at 1 p. m., at Oak Hall. The Rev. Chas. L. McGavern was the guest speaker and he told of the importance of cultivating the spiritual values of life, as the only things of permanent value.

The first dance of the Christmas holidays to be reported will be that of Carter Wilkie Brown and David Howell, which will be given at Sunnydale on Christmas Day, December 25th.

When asked what they needed, U. S. Marines on Wake Island are reported to have said, "Send us some more Japs". Wake Island has held out against several attacks of the Japanese.

The British are preparing their people to expect the downfall of Hongkong which is surrounded by Japs. Singapore is also in danger. The Chinese are attacking the Japs. The Germans are retreating from Russia and from the British in Africa.

The jig's up we hope for the Axis. The first letter in Japan, the first letter in Italy and the first letter in Germany spell "JIG"!

CURB REPORTER

There are several thousand soldiers at Camp Croft who will be far from home on Christmas. Anyone desiring to have one or more soldiers as guests on Christmas day may communicate with Mrs. Fletcher, the hostess at Camp Croft . . . . The weather on Tuesday was 24 low and 61 high . . . . Mayor Missildine published an ad in the Bulletin on Tuesday urging people who have extra money for fireworks to spend it for defense stamps or bonds and help defeat Hitler and Japan. As a matter of fact it is against the law to set off fireworks in the town limits and if the offenders are caught the city will give them the "works" with plenty of fire. Anyone desiring to shoot fireworks should get out of the city limits . . . Today, is the anniversary of the first successful airplane flight by Wilbur Wright, made at Kitty Hawk, N. C., on Dec. 17, 1903 . . . . New neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Karsten, who bought the Dixon house on Lake Lanier, report that aside from the beauty of the lake scenery they valued its safety from bombing areas and have already sold their Macon, Ga., home, expecting to occupy their Tryon home early in January . . . . Jim Swain of Green's Creek section, says that he has not heard from . . . .

Continued on Back Page