

5c PER COPY

$2.00 PER YEAR

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper, Seth M. Vining, Editor.

Vol. 14. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N C., THURSDAY, JAN. 1, 1942

CURB REPORTER

The weather Wednesday was 25 low and 51 high. Today begins another year. Everything in Tryon is quiet. The bank and post office are closed. Business is slow. The New Year opened here with a slow, patter, patter rain. It is dark and gloomy just like the world news. But there has always been sunshine to follow the cloudy days Volunteer guards of the Polk County Defense Council are faithfully guarding the Tryon Water Works every night. What have you done to help keep Tryon from being another Pearl Harbor? Have you enrolled for Civilian Defense so the authorities would know what to call on you to do in case of emergency? The headlines of the big papers today are all about the war. The Japs are about to take the Philippine Islands, but are weakening in their fight on Singapore. The Russians continue to rout the Germans and have recaptured an important city. The British continue to drive the Germans out of Lybia. Former Lt. Governor Dick Fountain wants to run against Senator Bailey in the spring primary U. S. accepts Myrtle Beach Airport area. Scoutmaster Bill McCall wants all Boy Scouts to save their copy of Tues-

Continued on Back Page

NEW BOOKS AT LIBRARY

Non-Fiction

- Clough—William Allen White of Emporia.
- Daniels—Tar heels.
- Fosdick—Living under tension.
- Gunther—Inside Latin America.
- Hampel—Yankee bride in Moscow.
- Pinkerton—Two ends to our shoestrings.
- Reniers—The springs of Virginia.
- White—Journey for Margaret.
- Wood—How young you look.
- Ybarra—Young man of Caracas.

Juvenile

- Anderson—High courage.
- Beston—The tree that ran away.
- De Leeuw—Career for Jennifer.
- Holbrook—Tall timber.
- Lent—Aviation cadet.
- Ransome—The big six.

Gifts

- Alexander—The cruise of the Raider Wolf
- Bernays—Speak up for democracy.
- Borsook—Vitamins.
- Brown—Women of Britain.
- Crowell—Facing the stars.
- Culbertson—The strange lives of one man.
- Curwood—The honor of the big snows.
- Daniels—Tar Heel editor.
- Eberhart—From the dark stairway.
- Fortescue—Trampled lilies.
- Gollomb—Spies.
- Hennig—Columbia, 1786-1936.
- Kantor—Valedictory.
- King—Murder in the Willett family.
- Lindlahr—You are what you

Continued on Back Page