COLUMBUS BOY SCOUTS PREPARE FOR WAR

At a meeting of the Columbus Boy Scouts last Tuesday night it was decided to take up intensive training in first aid. Scoutmaster John Brown, announced that a Tryon doctor had promised to be present next week or in the near future to start this training. They will all learn how to administer first aid treatment which is one of the requirements for a Second Class Scout. The troop is also learning some military formations which are sometimes used in emptying public buildings orderly, safely and without panic.

The following boys have recently registered for the ensuing year: Neil Constance, son of Mrs. Ed Constance; Edwin Lanning, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Lanning; Charles Blanton, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Blanton; Bob Gibson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Gibson; Robert West, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy West; J. Alvin Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wilson; Randal and Kenneth Lathan, sons of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Lathan.

The following members of the troop committee have re-registered for next year: C. E. Blanton, John Gibson, J. A. Wilson and S. H. Lathan.

The troop is meeting every Monday night. Four more boys are working on the tenderfoot requirements. Hikes have been announced for each month in the future. On these hikes the Scouts will work off many of their requirements like tracking, signaling, cooking, first aid, etc. The
