

5c PER COPY

$2.00 PER YEAR

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper, Seth M. Vining, Editor.

Vol. 14. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, JAN. 13, 1942

COMMUNICATIONS

Portland, Oregon.

Dear Fellow Editor:

In these days of world shattering events and the destruction of life and wealth beyond the power of man to comprehend, we must try to see through the wreckage and the sorrow to the rights that free citizens in the United States must strive to maintain.

The right to freedom of expression, the right to religious beliefs, the right to do business, the right to earn a living, the right to savings—these have been and are the elemental objectives of the American system. These are what we must save.

We here in the United States should heed the object lessons furnished by governments gone mad, with resulting extermination of liberty, opportunity and life itself.

We feel it particularly important at this time to stress the principles on which our work was founded, and on which it stands—namely, a continuous endeavor to perpetuate the American free enterprise system, which has given each and every one of us, from the lowliest day laborer to the highest executive, the opportunities and privileges he has enjoyed.

A free press, most vital of the nation's safeguards against oppression and exploitation of the people, cannot exist without free enterprise. Without free enterprise, there would not be the thousands of independent newspapers which this country now has. Fifteen or twenty "official organs" would suffice. This is overwhelmingly

Continued on Page Two

INSTALLATION SERVICE FOR METHODIST WOMEN

The women of United Methodism who constitute the more than one million membership roll of The Woman's Society of Christian Service have closed a year of fruitful work with thanksgiving and with praise on their lips. The society now faces a new year at a crisis hour in human affairs. Never before in Christian history has so dark and suffering a world challenged the followers of Jesus Christ. Never has it been more imperative than Christians be utterly Christian; that they put their faith into action.

With these thoughts in mind the newly elected officers of the Tryon Methodist church will stand before the minister, before the altar of God, and take the vow of undivided service and consecration on Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock. The candle light service will be impressive to all who may desire to be with the women of the church. The officers:

President, Mrs. George M. Schreyer; vice-president, Mrs. W. W. Creasman; chairman of Circle No. 2, Mrs. Larry Brooks; corresponding secretary, Mrs. L. C. Reynolds; recording secretary, Mrs. R. A. Leonard; treasurer, Mrs. M. Waters; secretary of Missionary Education, Mrs. Muriel Patterson; secretary of Christian Social Relation, Mrs. P. G. Morris; secretary of Student Work, Miss Marjorie Capps; secretary of Young Women and Girls' Work, Mrs. Marvin Brendall; secretary of literature, Mrs. Howard Jerman; secretary of supplies, Miss Leila Dempsey; chairman of Spiritual Life Work, Mrs. A. W. Barr.