Over 100 Volunteer Gifts For Birthday Celebration

Mrs. William St. Julien Jervey, county treasurer, reported this morning that over 100 people had volunteered contributions from 10c to $1, to the Infantile Paralysis Foundation in celebration of the President's birthday. All the receiving stations had not reported at press time this morning and the number of donors is no doubt much larger. School Principal Floyd E. Millsaps of Sunny View has been added to the county committee as chairman and treasurer of Sunny View community. Donors are requested to please leave their names in order to have them published in the special edition of the Bulletin on the President's birthday, Jan. 30th.

The local quintet will play the Mantforel basketball team on Spartanburg here on Friday night at 8 o'clock in the school gym.

Three More Towns Added To Birthday Donors

Charlotte, Forest City and Mill Spring citizens have sent donations to the President's birthday celebration for the Infantile Paralysis Foundation, which will be listed in the special edition of the Bulletin. The citizens of any community reached by the Bulletin can have their town represented in this special edition by sending ten cents or more as soon as possible to the Bulletin. All the proceeds go to the Infantile Paralysis cause.
