CURB REPORTER

News item via of Pine Crest Inn and St. Petersburg, Fla., states that David Niven has been promoted to a major in the British army and expects to be in Libya soon. Tryon friends will remember David Niven more vividly as a soldier by having seen his performance in the "Charge of the Light Brigade" which was shown at the Tryon Theatre while David was a guest of the Lefty Flynns. . . . Among the renewal subscriptions to the Bulletin are Sergeant Walter Bell at Camp Shelby, Miss. Says he hopes Tryon will have a big spring season. Having worked at Pine Crest Inn he knows what a big season means to the hotels and inns of the community. H. E. Walker renewed his at Estill, S. C., Ensign R. F. Zogbaum, Pensacola, Fla. A new subscription goes to Adria Smith, Tryon Route One . . . Eugene Turner of Tryon, for 25 years a Y. M. C. A. secretary in China, will be the guest speaker in Charlotte on Friday night at the annual meeting of the Charlotte Y. M. C. A. . . . Mrs. F. P. Bacon, chairman of the entertainment committee which is helping to furnish entertainment for some of the Camp Croft soldiers has received a letter of thanks from the public relations officer and he writes that many nice things have been arranged for the Camp Croft men, but that the entertainment at Tryon topped them all . . . Governor Broughton says he wants the State Highway improvement to go forward after a careful estimate of anticipated revenue. He knows there'll be less on account of tire rationing, but says there is no cause for hysteria and that it would be sheer folly to shut down the highway department during the duration of the war . . . As a final warning, if you want your name in the special birthday greeting edition of the Bulletin to be sent to the President, please send in your name and silver offering today.
