

TUSSY WIND AND WEATHER LOTION—$1 size (limited time)—50c. MISSILDINE'S PHARMACY, Phone No. 4.

REGISTRATION IN POLK

school house or some other public building.

4. Sheriff W. D. Hines will take charge of the registration of inmates of hospitals and institutions as well as registrants who are confined to their homes because of illness.

5. Each registrar in charge of the registration in his township will see that sufficient tables and chairs are provided to take care of their needs.

6. We have planned to have a meeting of all registrars in the near future and instruct them in the proper procedure.

7. Publicity will be given through the local daily and weekly county newspapers. Posters, if furnished by the Selective Service System, will be displayed.

Julian B. Hester,
Chairman.

Polk County Local Board No. 1.

Ensign R. F. Zogbaum, Jr., is here for a few days while enroute from Pensacola, Fla., to East Hartford, Conn. His mother, Mrs. Rufus Zogbaum, Sr., has gone to Chicago to be at the bedside of Captain Zogbaum, who has been quite ill, but was reported better during the weekend. Captain Zogbaum is in charge of the Navy Pier at Chicago.

G. C. Furr has returned to Burlington Mills after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Ward.
