Building Home Here

Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Spencer of New Haven, Conn., who are building a new home on War Drive near the Von Kahlden property, have arrived in Tryon for a visit and to inspect the work. C. N. Sayre is the builder and Shannon Meriwether, architect.

Mrs. Spencer is a daughter of Dr. Alexander W. Evans, professor emeritus of Botany, Yale university, and the family has often visited Tryon.

Country Club To Hold Annual Meeting Monday

The annual meeting of the Tryon Country club will be held on Monday night, February 9th, at the club house. Three new directors will be elected to fill the expired terms of B. L. Ballenger, Baxter Haynes, and Nelson Jackson, Jr. The new directors to be elected together with six holders will elect the officers for the coming year.

Reports will be made by all committees and the retiring officers; after which a business session will be held with a general discussion of plans and proposals for the coming season. All members are urged to be present. B. L. Ballenger is president and E. C. Rowe, secretary.

COULTER—WILSON

Miss Rose Mary Wilson, daughter of Mrs. P. T. Colbron and Mr. Henry Coulter of Greensburg, Pa., were married today at high noon at the Church of the Holy Cross. The Rector, the Rev. Charles L. McGavern, officiated.

Meet Soldiers At Noon

All those entertaining Camp Croft soldiers on Sunday are requested to meet them at the Bus Station at 12:15 noon. A recreational program will begin at 3:00 o'clock at the Parish House to which the people are invited to come and take part. Mrs. F. P. Bacon, chairman of the ladies committee says that supper for the soldiers will be served at 6:30 p. m. About 40 soldiers have been invited.

Flynns To Entertain Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Flynn who have contributed much of their talent and time to worthy causes in the community will be a feature of the entertainment being provided in honor of the soldiers at the Parish House on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

This will probably be their last public performance before going away to Norfolk, Va., where Mr. Flynn will be in charge of USO work at the Naval center. Mrs. Flynn was a leader in the entertainment of soldiers in England during World War No. 1.
