Farmers Federation To Celebrate on February 18th

*Housewarming, Banquet, Gov.
Hoey to Speak, Prizes to be Awarded.*

The celebration by the Farmers Federation in Polk County on Wednesday, February 18th, will include a "housewarming" program in the afternoon at the new Federation warehouse addition in Tryon, and a banquet in the evening at which prizes in the Polk County Farm Progress Contest will be awarded.

Former Governor Clyre R. Hoey will be the principal speaker at the banquet which will be held at Sunnysdale, Tryon.

Other speakers will include James G. K. McClure, president of the Farmers Federation; the Rev. Dumont Clarke, religious director of the Federation; and Joe Wilson County Agent of Polk, who supervised the contest.

Conducted for the purpose of encouraging the farmers of the county to improve their homes, lands, livestock, and farm buildings, the contest has resulted in the accomplishment of much work.

"So much work was done by so many, that it is difficult to select the winners," C. M. Howes, chairman of the Farmers Federation committee, said.

Judges were divided into three teams, in order that they might inspect all the farms of the 58 contestants.

Team (A), for Columbus township, is composed of Mrs. Dorothy Heightmann, Chas. D. Brown, and J. H. Gibbs. Mr. Brown is chairman.

Team (B), for Green Creek township, is composed of Julius
