

5c PER COPY

$2.00 PER YEAR

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper, Seth M. Vining, Editor.

Vol. 15, Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, MARCH 2, 1942

Soldiers Here Again!

The people of Tryon will again entertain men of the service from Camp Croft this coming Sunday, March 8th. Will all who desire to have one or more of these men for dinner on this day kindly notify Mrs. F. P. Bacon no later than Thursday of this week.

The bus will arrive at the local bus station at 12:15, and all who are entertaining these men are requested to be present and pick up their guests.

Those desiring to make contributions in place of entertaining may leave such contribution with the treasurer, Tom Collum, at Missildine's.

The Parish House will be open from 3:30 until the departure of the bus. Entertainment at the Parish House will be in charge of Mrs. Nelson Jackson, Jr., and the devotional service will be in charge of Rev. Charles G. Sew-

Supper will be served at the Parish House under the direction of a committee headed by Mrs. Bacon and composed of representatives from various Tryon churches.

Mrs. Ferree Teaches at Lynn

Due to the resignation of Miss Bessie J. Helton, Mrs. May F. Ferree has been selected to finish out the school term in the Lynn school. Mrs. Ferree has had wide experience as a teacher, having taught in the High Point schools and for several years in the Tryon Graded school. Last year she served as overflow teacher for the Fourth and Fifth Grades at Tryon.

Supt. M. B. Caldwell was high in praise of Mrs. Ferree's ability.

Lancaster-Lockhart

Miss Ruth Elizabeth Lockhart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Lockhart of Tryon, and Mr. Clyde Elsworth Lancaster, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lancaster of Springton, West Virginia, were married at 4 o'clock on Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. E. E. Bomar, performed the double ring ceremony. Music for the occasion was played by Miss Betty Thomas of Saluda, violinist and Mrs. Walter Jones, pianist, of Tryon. They played "Oh, Promise Me," "I Love You Truly", "At Dawning", and Lohengrin's "The Bridal Chorus".

Miss Mary D. Lockhart, sister of the bride was maid of honor. Mr. Q. W. Hodges of Greenbay, Va. was best man.

The bride was dressed in blue velvet with matching accessories, and wore a single orchid corsage.

The maid of honor wore an aqua crepe dress with black accessories, and had a corsage of pink rosebuds.

Immediately following the ceremony the wedding cake was cut by the bride and groom. Refreshments were served and the couple left for a ten days honeymoon.

The bride was graduated from Tryon High school, attended Brevard college, and for the past few years has been a secretary in the office of the Town of Tryon.

The bridegroom was educated at Matoaka Senoir school, studied mechanics in Boston; later was connected with the Copperas Coal company. He is now in the U. S. Army and is stationed at Camp Croft.